

of the "Caregivers". He is blind also from Retinitis so it is doubly difficult. We live day to day - receive our "war Stories" over frequently and wish that he was able physically do a few things we could enjoy. Life is like that - we endure what God hands to us and are grateful for family and friends and memories. I like getting your newsletters - wish we could join you for those events you offer.

God bless!
